Mi she berach avotenu
M’kor hab’racha l’imoteinu
May the source of strength who blessed the ones before us, help us find the courage to make our lives a blessing, and let us say Amen.

Mi she berach imoteinu,
M’kor hab’racha l’avoteinu
Bless those in need of healing with r’fu-a sh’lei-ma, the renewal of body, the renewal of spirit, and let us say Amen.

Shabbat Begins (Candles) – 5:17 pm Friday Night
Shabbat Ends (Havdalah) – 6:18 pm Saturday Night
God tells Moses to instruct the Israelites to bring gifts – precious metals, fine fabrics, skins, wood, oil, spices, and jewels – for the building of the portable sanctuary – the Mishkan – and its furnishings.

God says, “Let them make Me a sanctuary that I may dwell among them.”

God gives them detailed instructions for the ark and its cover, the table, and the menorah. Next, there are the instructions for making the Mishkan’s coverings – layers of cloth, goats’ hair, and skins – from inside to outside. Next, the wooden structure of planks and the silver and gold fittings are described.
The Mishkan also was to have a curtain to partition off the Holy of Holies and a screen for its entrance.

The altar of wood overlaid with bronze was to be placed outside the screen.

The entire Mishkan was to be surrounded by an enclosure made of linen curtains, supported by wooden planks with bronze and silver fittings.

L’chaim League is proud to offer a new program to our members, as well as to all congregants of Temple Beth Or and Agudath Israel Etz Ahayem.

In collaboration with Collat Jewish Services in Birmingham our members are invited to join their Grief support group held via Zoom and led by CJFS professionals. The group meets monthly and dates are set at the conclusion of each meeting. Typically they meet Thursday afternoons 1-2:30 PM.

Whether you’ve lost a spouse, child, sibling, parents, other relatives or friends, the Grieving Process is an important and necessary part of healing. Grieving is a universal experience, and loss is loss, especially now, with our current isolation. The group provides a safe space to share your process with others who are going through it. If you would like to be a part of this support group, please contact me by phone: 334.430.0282 or by email: lchaimleague2246@yahoo.com

We are fortunate, that Collat Jewish Family Services of Birmingham, has the expertise and tools in place to include us. Please contact me at your earliest convenience. I look forward to hearing from you,
